The LORD called out to him from heaven, "Abraham! Abraham. Do not lay a hand on the boy," he said. "Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son."

Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns.

He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son. So Abraham called that place The LORD Will Provide.

Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac

"The fire and wood are here," Isaac said, "but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?"

He said to his servants, "Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you."

God said, "Take your son and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about."

Abraham answered, "God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son."

God said, "Take your son and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about."

Early the next morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about.
