

The Lost Prodigal Son—Mini Books and Pictures

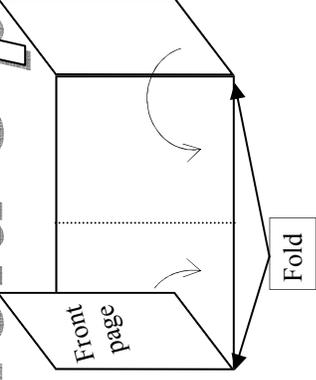

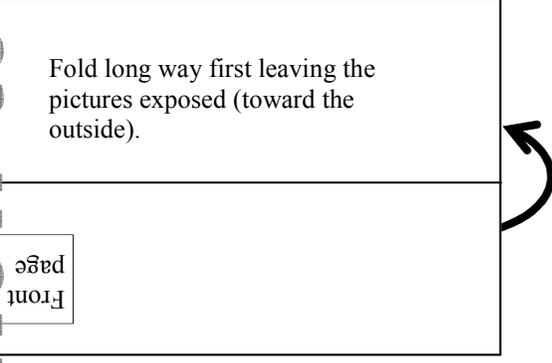

Directions:

1. Read the story of the lost son in Luke 15.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Pages 2 and 3 are mini books with 8 pages. Pages 4 and 5 are mini books with 4 pages. Pages 6 through 13 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first. For the 4 page book, make the first fold the short way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

How to fold 8 page booklet

Fold first and last page to meet in the center.

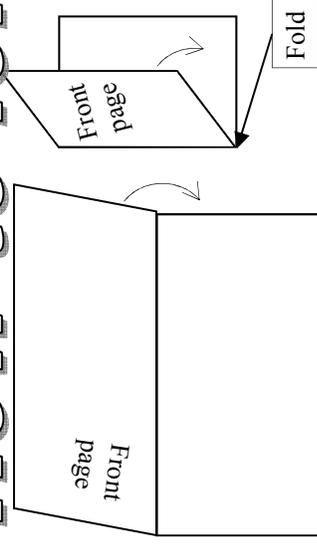

Fold the center and bend backwards.

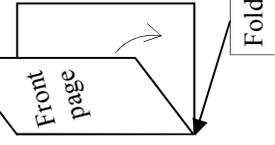

The final booklet is an accordion-style book.

How to fold 4 page booklet

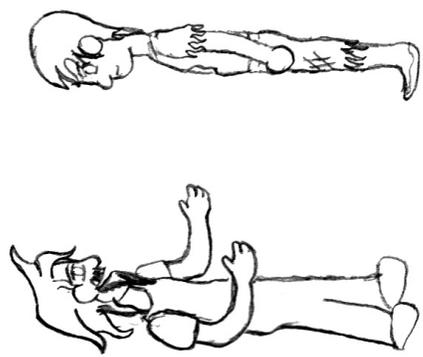

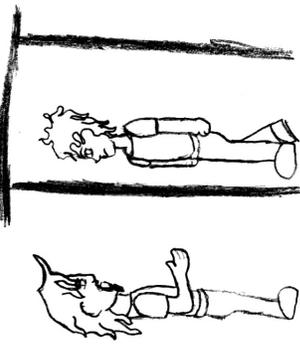

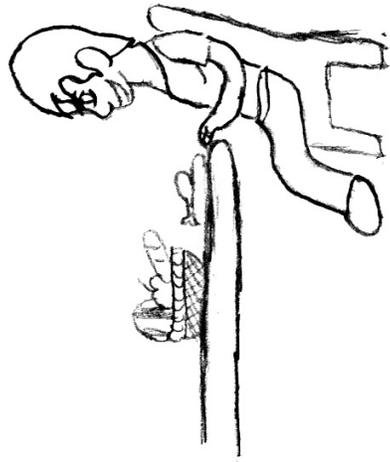

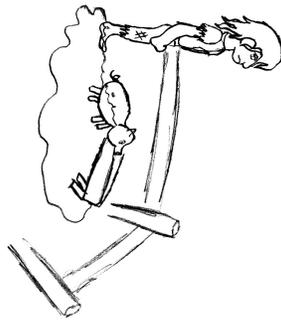

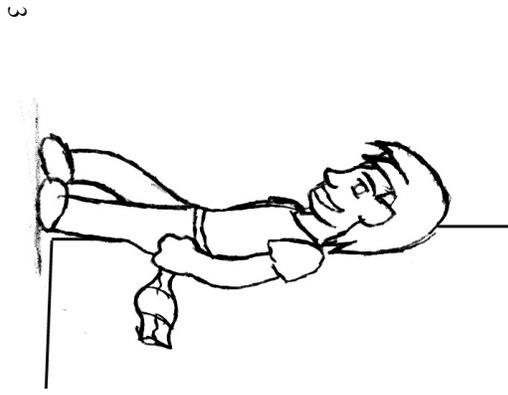

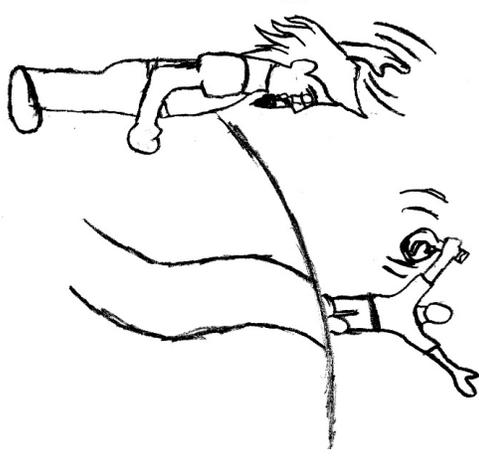

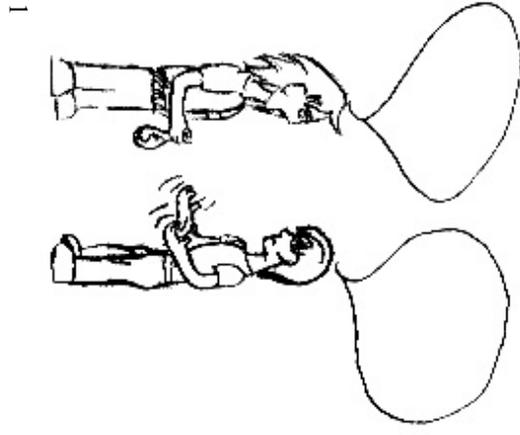

Fold the page the short length first, leaving the pictures visible (outside).

Now fold the opposite direction, leaving the front page as the cover of the book.

The Lost Son

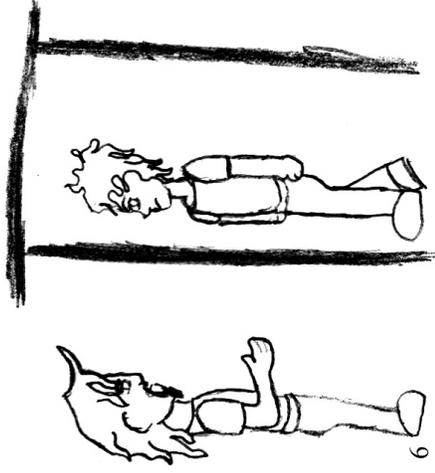

Mini book by _____

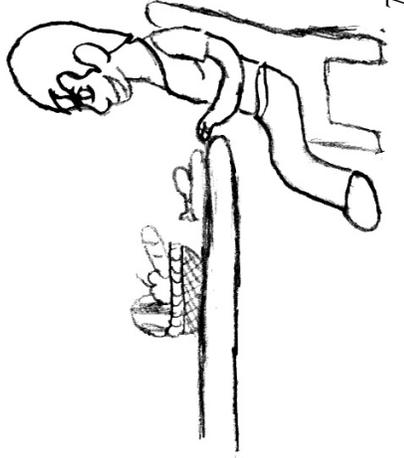

And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and emitted compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

But the father said to his servants, 'Bring quickly the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.

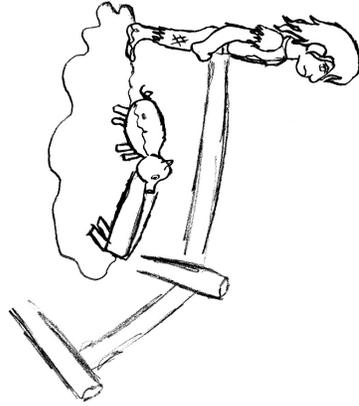

And bring the fattened calf and kill it, and let us eat and celebrate. For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found.' And they began to celebrate.

And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs.

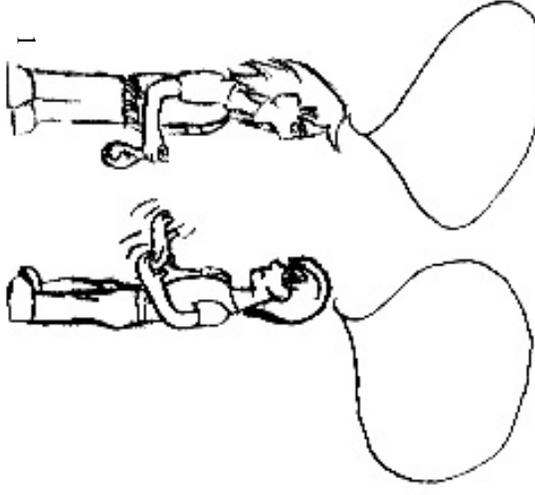

and there he squandered his property in reckless living.

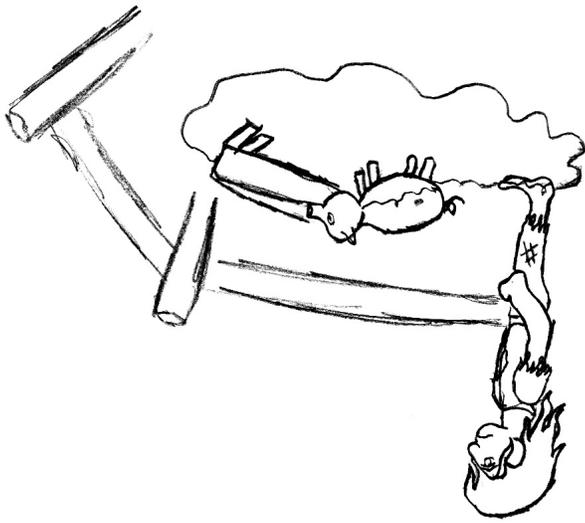

Not many days later, the younger son gathered all he had and took a journey into a far country

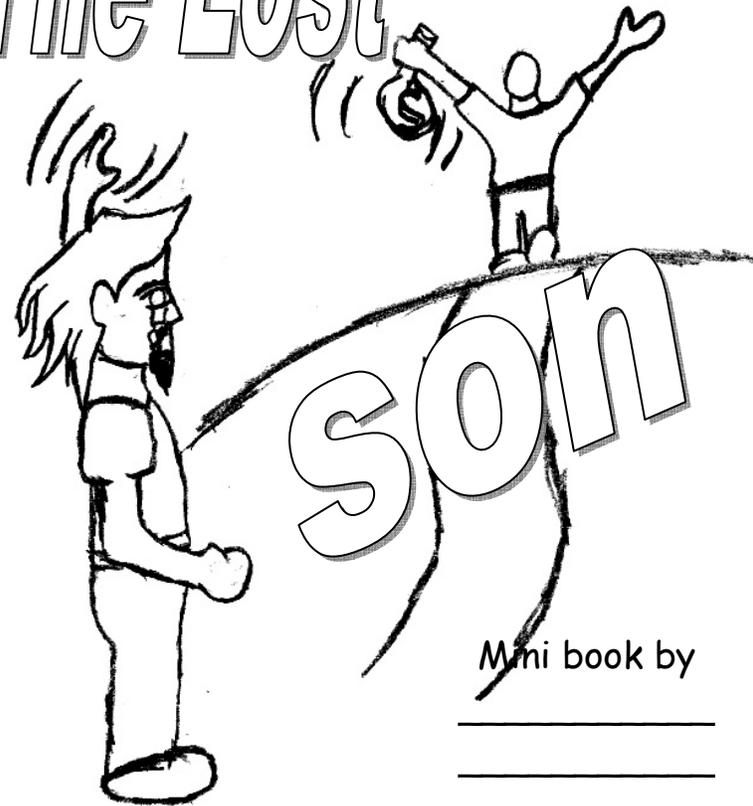

"There was a man who had two sons. And the younger of them said to his father, 'Father, give me the share of property that is coming to me.' And he divided his property between them.

and there he squandered his property in reckless living.

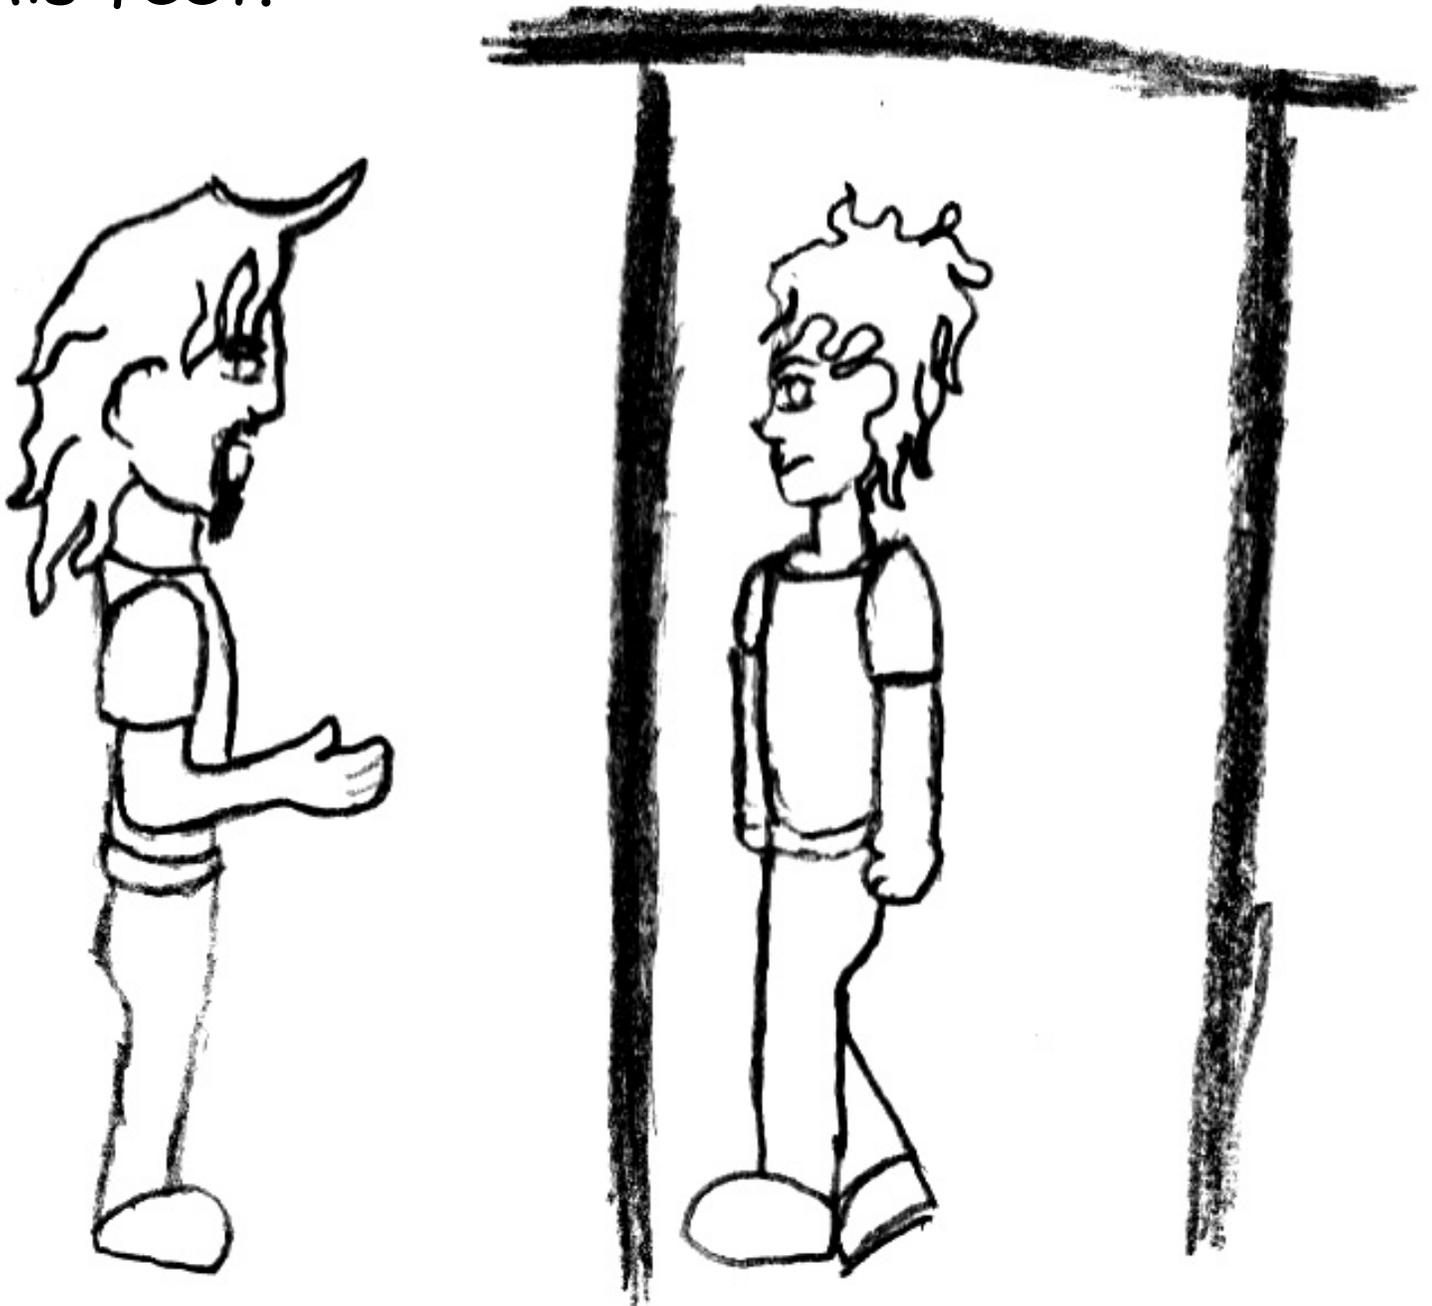

And when he had spent everything, a severe famine arose in that country, and he began to be in need. So he went and hired himself out to one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to feed pigs. And he was longing to be fed with the pods that the pigs ate, and no one gave him anything.

And he arose and came to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and felt compassion, and ran and embraced him and kissed him. And the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and before you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
