Moses Strikes the Rock to Provide Water to the People

Exodus 17 and Numbers 20

Directions:
1. Read the story of Moses striking the rock in obedience in Exodus 17 and then later in disobedience in Numbers 20.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Pages 2 and 3 are mini books with 8 pages. Pages 4 and 5 are mini books with 4 pages. Pages 6 through 11 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first. For the 4 page book, make the first fold the short way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

Take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile. You shall strike the rock, and water shall come out of it, and the people will drink.

And Moses called the name of the place Massah and Meribah, because of the quarreling of the people of Israel, and because they tested the Lord by saying, "Is the Lord among us or not?"

Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord? Why did you bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us with thirst?

Give us water to drink. Why did you quarrel with me? You bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us by thirst, and you say to the people, ‘Why did you bring us out of Egypt?’

And the Lord gave them orders. The children of Israel traveled through the desert.
And the children of Israel traveled through the desert as Lord gave them orders.

And the children of Israel traveled through the desert as Lord gave them orders.
Give us water to drink.

Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the Lord?
Why did you bring us up out of Egypt, to kill us with thirst?

Lord, what shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.
