Elijah was an old, experienced prophet. He had performed many miracles while speaking for God.

Elisha, God wants you to be a prophet too. Come learn from me.

Elijah had to travel to the other side of the river Jordan. He rolled up his coat and struck the water. God made a dry path for Elijah and Elisha to cross.

When God takes you away from me, I want to receive a double portion of your spirit upon me.

Suddenly, a Chariot of fire separated them and Elijah went up into heaven in a whirlwind.

Send men to look for your master. Perhaps he is in the mountains; 50 men looked in the mountains for 3 days without finding Elijah. Elisha said "Did I not say to you not to go?" Don't send anyone; you will waste your time.

The spirit of Elijah now rests on Elisha!
