David was a young boy. His father sent David to a battle with supplies for his brothers.

Their enemy, Goliath, made everyone afraid.

You just came here to see the battle. You should be back home with father.

I will fight him. The Lord gave a lion into my hand. He will do the same with Goliath.

I will fight him. The Lord gave a lion into my hand. He will do the same with Goliath.

Follow them. The Lord has given them into our hands today!
