The Day of Pentecost

Directions:
1. Read the story of the healing of a paralyzed man in Mark 2.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Pages 2 and 3 are mini books with 8 pages. Page 4 is a mini book with 4 pages. Pages 5 through 11 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first. For the 4 page book, make the first fold the short way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

When the day of Pentecost arrived, they were all together in one place.

And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like a mighty rushing wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting.

And divided tongues as of fire appeared to them and rested on each one of them. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit gave them utterance.

Men of Judea, these people are not drunk, but this is what the prophet Joel said: ‘I will pour out my Spirit...’

They are filled with new wine.

Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? How is it that we hear, each of us in his own native language?
They are filled with new wine.
