

Rahab and the Two Spies —Mini Books and Pictures

Directions:

1. Read the story of Joshua's invasion of the Promised Land in Joshua 1-7.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Page 2 is a mini book with 8 pages. Pages 3 through 9 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

Rahab Protects the Spies

By
Mini Book

There is Jericho. The strongest city in the Promised Land that we have to conquer. Look at those walls!

Two spies went into the city and stayed with a woman name Rahab.

Can we hide in your house for a few days?

They talked about the great things that God had done for Israel in Egypt.

...and then God killed the firstborn. And then He sent us to the Red Sea. And then...

They told her of their plans to invade the city.

I know that God has given this city to you. The whole country is afraid of what your God can do.

Later, Rahab let the spies escape through the window of her house. Rahab, when we return to this city. Leave this rope in your window and we will know not to harm this house.

You can hide under the stalks of flax that are laid out on the roof. The soldiers will not find you there.

Quick. Hide in here!

We are looking for those spies from Israel.

The men had to be very careful not to be discovered.
