Samson the Mighty Judge —Mini Books and Pictures

Directions:
1. Read the story of Samson the Judge in the book of Judges chapters 13 to 16. There is a lot of detail in the story that is not included in this mini book.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Page 2 is a mini book with 8 pages. Pages 3 through 9 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

Samson was a strong man who received his strength from God. He could even kill a lion with his bare hands.

She cut his hair when he was asleep. Now we will be able to capture him. I'll get the others.

The Philistines blinded Samson and put him in prison. I never should have told her my secret. Or you should not have fallen in love!

The Philistines were having a party. Samson's hair grew again and he became strong. One day he pushed down the pillars of a mansion where the Philistines were having a party. He killed more enemies in his death than during his entire lifetime.

Samson, my dear, tell me the secret to your strength! Lord, give me strength one more time!

Okay! My strength comes from God as long as my hair is long. Long hair! Perfect. I cannot tell you more. My strength comes from God, but I cannot tell you more. It is long. My strength comes from God. My strength comes from God, but I finally could not resist her any more. She continued to ask him until he told her. Samson, my dear, tell me the secret to your strength! I must have her even though she is from the enemies of God's people. Delilah was from the Philistines. Delilah was not from Israel. However, one day he saw a woman from the Philistines. Delilah was not from Israel. I must have her even though she is from the enemies of God's people.
