Resurrection Appearances of Jesus —Mini Books and Pictures

Directions:
1. Read the scripture references in the various scenes of the two page booklets. There is a lot of detail in the chapters that is not included in this mini book.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Pages 2 and 3 are mini books with 8 pages. Pages 4 through 17 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

The sins of the whole world were laid on Him in his hours of suffering on the cross. “Christ died for the ungodly” Romans 5:6

During Jesus time with his disciples, he told them “The Son of Man will be delivered over to the chief priests and the scribes, and they will condemn him to death and deliver him over to the Gentiles. (34) And they will mock him and spit on him, and flog him and kill him. And after three days he will rise.” Mark 10:33-34

Two believers, Joseph and Nicodemus, took him down from the cross and put his body in a new tomb. But three days later, the stone was found rolled away and the grave clothes were folded neatly where his body had been.

Mary and her friend, also named Mary, found angels at the tomb. Luke 24:4-5 While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel. (5) And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, “Why do you seek the living among the dead?"
And they rose that same hour and returned to Jerusalem. And they found the eleven and those who were with them gathered together, saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he was known to them in the breaking of the bread.

John 20:19

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Thomas, one of the Twelve was not with them when Jesus came. The disciples told him, "We have seen the Lord." But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and place my finger into the mark of the nails, and place my hand into his side, I will never believe."

John 20:20-25

Eight days later, his disciples were inside again, and Thomas was with them. Although the doors were locked, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." (27) Then he said to Thomas, "Put your finger here, and see my hands: and put out your hand, and place it in my side. Do not disbelieve, but believe." (28) Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!" (29) Jesus said to him, "Have you believed because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

John 20:26-29

Luke 24:6

Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee.

In Galilee, you, while he was still among the dead? He is not here, he was still risen. Re-member how he told you, while he was still in Galilee.
Returning from the tomb they told all these things to the eleven and to all the rest. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. Luke 24:9-11
Jesus joined two people as they walked along a road together. When he joined them for supper, they recognized him as the risen Lord. Luke 24

On one occasion, Jesus appeared on the shore where the disciples were fishing. He caused their nets to overflow with fish and then welcomed them to eat with him on the shore. John 21
So when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, will you at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?"

"It is not for you to know times or seasons that the Father has fixed by his own authority. But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth." — Acts 1
Acts 1:9-11

And when he had said these things, as they were looking on, he was lifted up, and a cloud took him out of their sight. And while they were looking into heaven, as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white robes, saying, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven."
