Ruth Marries Boaz — Mini Books and Pictures

Directions:
1. Read the four chapters in the book of Ruth. There is a lot of detail in the chapters that is not included in this mini book.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Page 2 is a mini book with 8 pages. Pages 3 through 9 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

Elimelech and his wife Naomi decided to leave Bethlehem and travel far away to the land of Moab. Moab was a place outside of the land that God had given to Israel. So Elimelech abandoned his lands.

In Bethlehem, Ruth had to find food for Naomi by collecting leftover barley from a field that belonged to a man named Boaz. Boaz and Ruth were a faithful and worthy woman. He decided to marry her. He declared that he would buy the lands of Elimelech and continue the family through Ruth. The two sons of Elimelech, Mahlon and Chilion, traveled far away to the land of Moab. The two sons were married to Moabite women, Ruth and Orpah.

Boaz saw that Ruth was a faithful and worthy woman. He decided to marry her. He declared that he would buy the lands of Elimelech and continue the family through Ruth.

Ruth 1:1 In the days when the judges ruled there was a famine in the land.

In Moab, Elimelech died. His two sons also died leaving Naomi with her two daughters-in-law, Naomi and Ruth. Naomi decided to go back to Israel. Ruth decided to go back with her. She said, "Where you go, I will go. Your people will be my people. Your God will be my God."
