

Moses is Found in a Basket in Nile River—Mini Books and Pictures

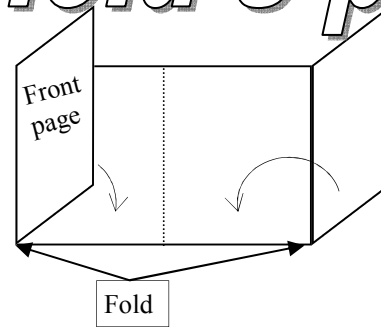

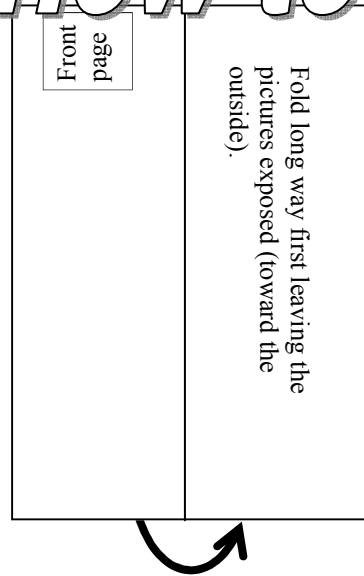

Directions:

1. Read the story of Moses' birth and rescue by Pharaoh's daughter in Exodus 1.
2. Print the pages of your choice. Pages 2 to 4 are mini books with 8 pages. Pages 6 to the end are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

I am Pharaoh, and master of all people.

The Israelite people are my slaves. They work hard, but they are too many.

If an enemy fights us, the Israelites may rise against us. Take all their baby boys and throw them into the River Nile. Drown them!

We must be careful to protect him from Pharaoh!

Look Jochebed, God has given us a beautiful son!

Meanwhile in the house of Amram and Jochebed...

Moses, we have to hide you in this basket. We will hide you in the river Nile where the princes bathes.

Jochebed and Miriam took Moses to the river with a heavy heart. Moses was getting too big to hide any longer.

Moses, as your big sister, I will always be there to protect you. You are just what we need.

Hurry mother. The Princes found Moses and now says she needs someone to take care of him.

12

Please take care of this child I found. I will pay you well until he is old enough to become the Prince of Egypt.

I will care for him as if he were my own child.

13

God certainly answered our prayers. Not only did He save my baby boy, but I can now teach him and train him until he grows up.

Mother, I am sure that he will be a greater answer to prayer when he is grown!

14

11

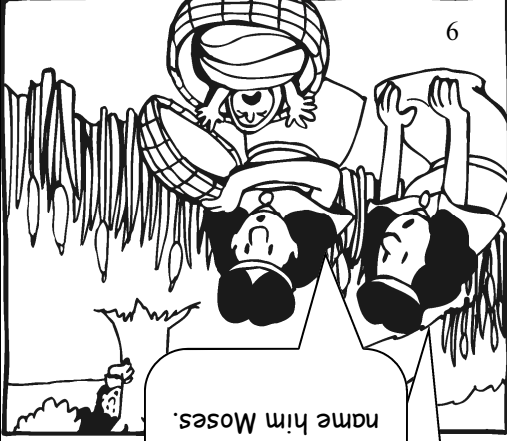

Yes. But I need someone to take care of him. Will you find someone for me?

Excuse me Princes. I see you found a baby!

10

Now is my chance!

6

Look at this beautiful baby! It looks like one of the Hebrew children. I don't care what my father says. This boy needs to be saved! I will name him Moses.

8

Moses was placed in a basket and hidden in the reed by the river in hopes that God would protect him.

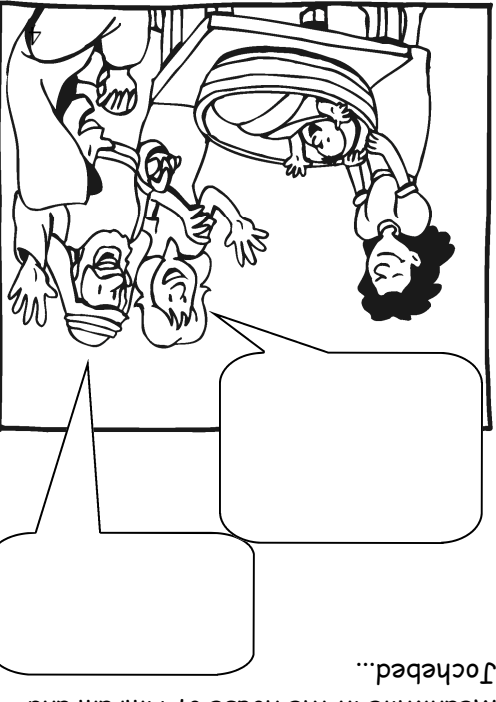

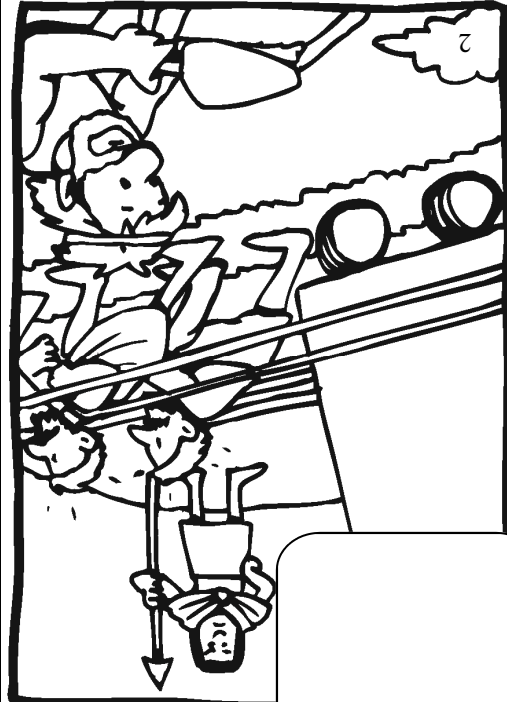

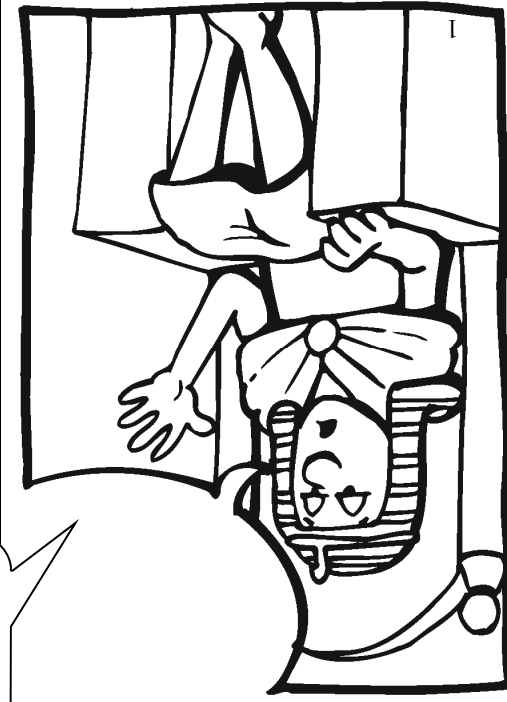

What will happen to Moses?
