Parable of the 10 minas (10 pounds) —Mini Books and Pictures

Directions:
2. Print the pages of your choice. Pages 2 to 3 are mini books with 8 pages. Pages 4 through 8 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

More printable Bible projects are available online at www.GospelHall.org

This document is the creative work of Shad Sluiter and retains all copyrights. Permission is granted to print, copy and distribute this document freely for the purpose of teaching the Bible without making changes and without charging any fees. Artwork was purchased from iClipart.
Jesus said, a nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. Calling ten of his servants, he gave them each a mina and said, "Put this money to work until I come back."

The king rewarded each servant according to what he had gained. Some received more reward than others according to what they gained.

Well done good servant. You can rule over 10 of my cities.

Lord, your mina has gained 10 minas more.

Here is your mina, which I kept hidden; I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man.

Why didn't you deposit my money in the bank? Take his mina from him and give it to someone else!

What have you done with the money I gave you?

The king rewarded each servant according to what he had gained. Some received more reward than others according to what they gained.

As for these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slaughter them before me.

The king rewarded each servant according to what he had gained. Some received more reward than others according to what they gained.

As for these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slaughter them before me.
Jesus said, a nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. Calling ten of his servants, he gave them ten minas. A mina is a unit of money worth about three months wages for an average worker.

Put this money to work until I come back.
My people have rejected me! Will my servants still be faithful to me?

But his citizens hated him and sent a delegation after him, saying, ‘We do not want this man to reign over us.’
When he returned, he called the servants...

What have you done with the money I gave you?

When
The king rewarded each servant according to what he had gained. Some received more reward than others according to what they gained.

Well done good servant. You can rule over 10 of my cities.

Lord, your mina has gained 10 minas more.
Here is your mina, which I kept hidden; I was afraid of you, because you are a hard man.

Why didn’t you deposit my money in the bank? Take his mina from him and give it to someone else!
As for these enemies of mine, who did not want me to reign over them, bring them here and slaughter them before me.