Part 3 - Questions

Questions to consider—answer each question and explain your answer.

1. Are there any characteristics of God that are also shared by certain people or are all of his characteristics unique to Him alone?

2. Are there any characteristics that seem to be contradictory? That is, do some parts of His personality appear to be opposed to each other?

3. How can God be just and still save guilty sinners? What does Romans 3:23-26 say about this apparent conflict of characteristics?

3. Are some characteristics stronger than others or are all equally balanced? Does God have any weak points?

4. If God is good, just and holy etc, then why is there evil, unrighteousness and sin in the world?
