

Questions from the Law

How well do you know God's laws? It may surprise you to hear some of these answers. Try to guess the answers without using the Bible. Check your answers when done.

1 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) If a man does not obey a priest's ruling in a legal decision he shall die.
- b) If a man hits a priest he shall die.
- c) If a man refuses to become a priest, he shall die.
- d) If a man offers a gift to a priest and then renounces his gift he shall die.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:12

2 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You must choose a native-born person to be your king.
- b) You must choose a tall man to be your king.
- c) You must choose a king from the Tribe of David.
- d) You must choose a humble man to be your king.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:15

3- which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) Your king must not build an extravagant house for himself.
- b) Your king must not attack neighbors unless provoked.
- c) Your king must not acquire many horses for himself.
- d) Your king must not drink wine.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:16

4 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) The king must write a copy of the book of the law.
- b) The king must recite prayers in the holiest of all.
- c) The king must become a priest before being crowned.
- d) The king must offer many sacrifices on the day of his coronation.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:18

5 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not eat the skin of an animal.
- b) You shall not eat the fat of an animal.
- c) You shall not eat the blood of an animal.
- d) You shall not eat the head of an animal.

Answer in Deuteronomy 12:23

6 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) If a city of Israel worships idols it must be attacked and burned to the ground.

- b) If a city of Israel refuses to honor the king's taxes, it must be attacked and burned to the ground.

- c) If a city of Israel drinks too much wine, it must be attacked and burned to the ground.

- d) If a city of Israel is taken by its enemies, it must be attacked and burned to the ground.

Answer in Deuteronomy 13:15

7 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not cut your hair short to honor dead people.
- b) You shall not grow your hair to look like a woman.
- c) You shall not tie your hair with gold or silver cords.
- d) You shall not wash your hair in the milk of a goat.

Answer in Deuteronomy 14:1

8 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not eat cows that are going to give birth.
- b) You shall not eat insects that have wings.
- c) You shall not cook meat with mixed vegetables.
- d) You shall not prepare wine with old bottles.

Answer in Deuteronomy 14:19

9- which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You may not eat meat from an animal that died naturally.
- b) You may not eat meat with leavened bread.
- c) You may not eat meat when you are promised to be married.
- d) You may not eat meat if it was offered in the temple.

Answer in Deuteronomy 14:21

10- which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not lend money to other nations.
- b) You shall not borrow money from other nations.
- c) You shall not spend money in other nations.
- d) You shall not take money from other nations.

Answer in Deuteronomy 15:6

11 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You may sell yourself as a slave for seven years if you need money.
- b) You may borrow money for up to seven years if you need money.
- c) You may steal money if you have not worked for seven years.

- d) You may cancel debts after not paying for seven years.

Answer in Deuteronomy 15:12

12 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not sow the same seed as your neighbor's field.
- b) You shall not move the landmark between you and your neighbor's field.
- c) You shall not buy your neighbor's field.
- d) You shall not glean barley in your neighbor's field.

Answer in Deuteronomy 19:14

13 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will be required to publicly confess his sin.
- b) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will be put to death.
- c) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will not be permitted to enter the court of the temple.
- d) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will receive the punishment that he had meant to do to his brother.

Answer in Deuteronomy 19:18

14 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A soldier could be excused from military service if he had recently planted a vineyard.
- b) A soldier could be excused from military service if he drank by putting his face into the water.
- c) A soldier could be excused from military service if he hired a servant to go in his place.
- d) A soldier could be excused from military service if was related to the king.

Answer in Deuteronomy 20:6

15 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) The Israel army could not accept the surrender of its enemies.
- b) The Israel army could not cut down fruit trees during a siege on an enemy.
- c) The Israel army could not use chariots.
- d) The Israel army could not allow the use of weapons.

Answer in Deuteronomy 20:19

16 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) If a dead man were found in a field, the people from nearest town would break the neck of a heifer.

- b) If a dead man were found in a field, the person who found him would have to run to a city of refuge.

- c) If a dead man were found in a field, the body would have to be burned.

- d) If a dead man were found in a field, the person who found the body would be stoned.

Answer in Deuteronomy 21:4

17 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A rebellious son would be sent away from the camp.

- b) A rebellious son would be stoned at the door of the city.

- c) A rebellious son would be beaten with 40 stripes.

- d) A rebellious son would be conscripted into the army.

Answer in Deuteronomy 21:20

18 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A woman shall not put on jewelry.

- b) A woman shall not put on a man's garment.

- c) A woman shall not put on shoes with high heels.

- d) A woman shall not paint her face.

Answer in Deuteronomy 22:5

19 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You must build a railing on the edge of roof top balconies.

- b) You must build a well in the center of the town.

- c) You must build barns before houses.

- d) You must build houses of stone and not of brick.

Answer in Deuteronomy 22:8

20 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not plant a field with slave labor.

- b) You shall not plant a field with two kinds of seed.

- c) You shall not plant a field with a donkey.

- d) You shall not plant a field with stony ground.

Answer in Deuteronomy 22:9

21 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not return an animal that has trespassed onto your ground.

- b) You shall not return a runaway slave.

- c) You shall not return stolen goods.

- d) You shall not return oil that has been stored in clay pots.

Answer in Deuteronomy 23:15

22 - which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not charge interest on loans.
- b) You shall not charge extra money for fine flour.
- c) You shall not charge money for animals used for sacrifices.
- d) You shall not charge for people passing through your land.

Answer in Deuteronomy 23:19

23 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You may take your neighbor's wife if he is angry with her.
- b) You may take your fill of your neighbor's grapes if you don't use a bag to carry them.
- c) You may take your neighbor's cow if it wanders onto your property.
- d) You may take your neighbor's vineyard if it pleases you.

Answer in Deuteronomy 23:24

24 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) After being married, a man may take a vacation for one year for service in the army.
- b) After being married, a man may serve as a priest in the temple.
- c) After being married, a man may be exempt from paying taxes to the king.
- d) After being married, a man may buy property.

Answer in Deuteronomy 24:5

25 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You must pay a farm worker the same wages as his companions.
- b) You must pay a farm worker from the fruit that he picks.
- c) You must pay a farm worker according to his efforts.
- d) You must pay a farm worker before sunset on the day he worked.

Answer in Deuteronomy 24:15

26 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) When harvesting, be sure to leave some of the crop in the field.
- b) When harvesting, do not sell to foreigners.
- c) When harvesting, separate the sheep from the goats.
- d) When harvesting, wait for the weeds to die first.

Answer in Deuteronomy 24:19

27 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not muzzle a dog who is standing guard.

- b) You shall not muzzle an ox that is treading out the grain.
- c) You shall not muzzle a donkey that is used for transportation.
- d) You shall not muzzle a sheep to be used in the Passover.

Answer in Deuteronomy 25:4

About this quiz

This is the creation of Shad David Sluiter and retains all copyright protection. Permission is granted to print and use this lesson for educational uses. It may not be sold. Additional Bible lessons for Bible classes are found online at www.GospelHall.org/sundayschool

Questions from the Law

Answer Key

1 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) If a man does not obey a priest's ruling in a legal decision he shall die.
- b) If a man hits a priest he shall die.
- c) If a man refuses to become a priest, he shall die.
- d) If a man offers a gift to a priest and then renounces his gift he shall die.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:12

2 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You must choose a native-born person to be your king.
- b) You must choose a tall man to be your king.
- c) You must choose a king from the Tribe of David.
- d) You must choose a humble man to be your king.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:15

3 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) Your king must not build an extravagant house for himself.
- b) Your king must not attack neighbors unless provoked.
- c) Your king must not acquire many horses for himself.
- d) Your king must not drink wine.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:16

4 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) The king must write a copy of the book of the law.
- b) The king must recite prayers in the holiest of all.
- c) The king must become a priest before being crowned.
- d) The king must offer many sacrifices on the day of his coronation.

Answer in Deuteronomy 17:18

5 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not eat the skin of an animal.
- b) You shall not eat the fat of an animal.
- c) You shall not eat the blood of an animal.
- d) You shall not eat the head of an animal.

Answer in Deuteronomy 12:23

6 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) If a city of Israel worships idols it must be attacked and burned to the ground.
- b) If a city of Israel refuses to honor the king's taxes, it must be attacked and burned to the ground.

- c) If a city of Israel drinks too much wine, it must be attacked and burned to the ground.
- d) If a city of Israel is taken by its enemies, it must be attacked and burned to the ground.

Answer in Deuteronomy 13:15

7 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not cut your hair short to honor dead people.
- b) You shall not grow your hair to look like a woman.
- c) You shall not tie your hair with gold or silver cords.
- d) You shall not wash your hair in the milk of a goat.

Answer in Deuteronomy 14:1

8 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not eat cows that are going to give birth.
- b) You shall not eat insects that have wings.
- c) You shall not cook meat with mixed vegetables.
- d) You shall not prepare wine with old bottles.

Answer in Deuteronomy 14:19

9 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You may not eat meat from an animal that died naturally.
- b) You may not eat meat with leavened bread.
- c) You may not eat meat when you are promised to be married.
- d) You may not eat meat if it was offered in the temple.

Answer in Deuteronomy 14:21

10 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not lend money to other nations.
- b) You shall not borrow money from other nations.
- c) You shall not spend money in other nations.
- d) You shall not take money from other nations.

Answer in Deuteronomy 15:6

11 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You may sell yourself as a slave for seven years if you need money.
- b) You may borrow money for up to seven years if you need money.
- c) You may steal money if you have not worked for seven years.
- d) You may cancel debts after not paying for seven years.

Answer in Deuteronomy 15:12

12 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not sow the same seed as your neighbor's field.
- b) You shall not move the landmark between you and your neighbor's field.
- c) You shall not buy your neighbor's field.
- d) You shall not glean barley in your neighbor's field.

Answer in Deuteronomy 19:14

13 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will be required to publicly confess his sin.
- b) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will be put to death.
- c) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will not be permitted to enter the court of the temple.
- d) A person guilty of falsely accusing another person will receive the punishment that he had meant to do to his brother.

Answer in Deuteronomy 19:18

14 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A soldier could be excused from military service if he had recently planted a vineyard.
- b) A soldier could be excused from military service if he drank by putting his face into the water.
- c) A soldier could be excused from military service if he hired a servant to go in his place.
- d) A soldier could be excused from military service if was related to the king.

Answer in Deuteronomy 20:6

15 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) The Israel army could not accept the surrender of its enemies.
- b) The Israel army could not cut down fruit trees during a siege on an enemy.
- c) The Israel army could not use chariots.
- d) The Israel army could not allow the use of weapons.

Answer in Deuteronomy 20:19

16 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) If a dead man were found in a field, the people from nearest town would break the neck of a heifer.
- b) If a dead man were found in a field, the person who found him would have to run to a city of refuge.
- c) If a dead man were found in a field, the body would have to be burned.
- d) If a dead man were found in a field, the person who found the body would be stoned.

Answer in Deuteronomy 21:4

17 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A rebellious son would be sent away from the camp.
- b) A rebellious son would be stoned at the door of the city.
- c) A rebellious son would be beaten with 40 stripes.
- d) A rebellious son would be conscripted into the army.

Answer in Deuteronomy 21:20

18 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) A woman shall not put on jewelry.
- b) A woman shall not put on a man's garment.
- c) A woman shall not put on shoes with high heels.
- d) A woman shall not paint her face.

Answer in Deuteronomy 22:5

19 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You must build a railing on the edge of roof top balconies.
- b) You must build a well in the center of the town.
- c) You must build barns before houses.
- d) You must build houses of stone and not of brick.

Answer in Deuteronomy 22:8

20 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not plant a field with slave labor.
- b) You shall not plant a field with two kinds of seed.
- c) You shall not plant a field with a donkey.
- d) You shall not plant a field with stony ground.

Answer in Deuteronomy 22:9

21 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not return an animal that has trespassed onto your ground.
- b) You shall not return a runaway slave.
- c) You shall not return stolen goods.
- d) You shall not return oil that has been stored in clay pots.

Answer in Deuteronomy 23:15

22 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not charge interest on loans.
- b) You shall not charge extra money for fine flour.
- c) You shall not charge money for animals used for sacrifices.
- d) You shall not charge for people passing through your land.

Answer in Deuteronomy 23:19

23 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You may take your neighbor's wife if he is angry with her.
- b) You may take your fill of your neighbor's grapes if you don't use a bag to carry them.
- c) You may take your neighbor's cow if it wanders onto your property.
- d) You may take your neighbor's vineyard if it pleases you.

Answer in Deuteronomy 23:24

24 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) After being married, a man may take a vacation for one year for service in the army.
- b) After being married, a man may serve as a priest in the temple.
- c) After being married, a man may be exempt from paying taxes to the king.
- d) After being married, a man may buy property.

Answer in Deuteronomy 24:5

25 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You must pay a farm worker the same wages as his companions.
- b) You must pay a farm worker from the fruit that he picks.
- c) You must pay a farm worker according to his efforts.
- d) You must pay a farm worker before sunset on the day he worked.

Answer in Deuteronomy 24:15

26 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) When harvesting, be sure to leave some of the crop in the field.
- b) When harvesting, do not sell to foreigners.
- c) When harvesting, separate the sheep from the goats.
- d) When harvesting, wait for the weeds to die first.

Answer in Deuteronomy 24:19

27 – which one of these laws is truly from the Bible?

- a) You shall not muzzle a dog who is standing guard.
- b) You shall not muzzle an ox that is treading out the grain.
- c) You shall not muzzle a donkey that is used for transportation.
- d) You shall not muzzle a sheep to be used in the Passover.

Answer in Deuteronomy 25:4