Peter Escapes from Jail

Directions:
1. Read the story of Peter's rescue in Acts 12
2. Print the pages of your choice. Pages 2 and 3 are mini books with 8 pages. Pages 4 through 12 are full-sized pictures suitable for coloring or for telling a story on a classroom wall.
3. Folding instructions: For the 8 page booklet, start by folding the page in half the long way first.
4. Use the booklets and pictures to tell the story and then as a coloring project for the last few minutes of class. At the end of class, send the students home with a story to tell their parents and friends.

More printable Bible projects are available online at www.GospelHall.org

This document is the creative work of Shad Sluiter and retains all copyrights. Permission is granted to print, copy and distribute this document freely for the purpose of teaching the Bible without making changes and without charging any fees. Artwork was purchased from iClipart.
He went to the house where many were gathered together praying.

Hi Rhoda? It's me, Peter! Let me in.

Really? I have to tell the others!

It can't really be Peter!

It must be his angel.

This is amazing!

Go arrest Peter the apostle!

And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him.

So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer for him was made when the church heard that he was kept in prison.

And he did so. And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. When they came to the iron gate leading into the city, it opened for them of its own accord, and they went out and went along one street, and immediately the angel left him.

Am I really seeing this? Or is this a dream?

Really? I have to tell the others!

It can't really be Peter!

It must be his angel.

This is amazing!

Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains.

To God by the church, earnest prayer for him was made, but Peter was kept in prison, but guard him.

Pet the apostle. He arrested Peter and put him into prison, delivering him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him.

He said to God by the church, He arrested Peter and put him into prison, delivering him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him, but earnest prayer for him was made, when the church heard that he was kept in prison.

Everyone was so excited that Peter had to tell them to be quiet.

God answered our prayers even though we didn't believe Him.

Tell James and the others that I am free.

Everyone was so excited that Peter had to tell them to be quiet.

This is amazing!

Tell James and the others that I am free.

Really? I have to tell the others!

It can't really be Peter!

It must be his angel.

This is amazing!
Herod the king laid violent hands on some who belonged to the church. He arrested Peter and put him into prison.

Go arrest Peter the apostle!
And when he had seized him, he put him in prison, delivering him over to four squads of soldiers to guard him.
Lord. Please rescue Peter from prison tonight!

So Peter was kept in prison, but earnest prayer for him was made to God by the church.
Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains.
Get up and get dressed. We’re leaving now.
And he did so. And he went out and followed him. He did not know that what was being done by the angel was real, but thought he was seeing a vision. When they came to the iron gate leading into the city. It opened for them of its own accord, and they went out and went along one street, and immediately the angel left him.

Am I really seeing this? Or is this a dream?

It’s very real. Now go!
He went to the house where many were gathered together praying.

Hi Rhoda? It's me, Peter! Let me in.

Really? I have to tell the others!
It can’t really be Peter!

It must be his angel.
Everyone was so excited that Peter had to tell them to be quiet.

God answered our prayers even though we didn’t believe Him.

This is amazing!