#10 You shall not covet
By Shad David Sluiter
Available at www.GospelHall.org
The first commandment

You shall have no other gods before me.
The second commandment

You shall not make for yourself a carved image.
The third commandment

You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain.
The fourth commandment

Remember the Sabbath Day to keep it holy.
The fifth commandment

Honor your father and mother.
The sixth commandment

You shall not murder.
The seventh commandment

You shall not commit adultery.
The eighth commandment

You shall not steal.
The ninth commandment

You shall bear false witness.
The tenth commandment

You shall not covet.
Coveting

Is Jealousy
What is he coveting?
What is he coveting?
What is she coveting?
Naboth was a farmer who had a vineyard.
He farmed grapes in his vineyard like his father and grandfather had done before him.
King Ahab noticed that the vineyard was very nice.
King Ahab offered to buy the vineyard and turn it into a garden near his castle.
But Naboth said, "No. This land was my grandfather’s. I cannot sell the Lord’s inheritance to our family."
King Ahab went home and was very upset that he couldn’t buy the vineyard.
He lay on his bed, turned his face away from the window and would not eat.
Ahab’s wife was Jezebel. She was a wicked woman.
“Why are you upset? Aren’t you the King? Get rid of Naboth and you can have his vineyard!”
So Naboth was invited to a great supper with many guests at the table.
During the supper, some false witnesses said “Naboth curses God and says bad things about the king!”
Naboth was taken away to be stoned to death.
King Ahab took Naboth’s vineyard since he was now dead.
The prophet Elijah came to visit King Ahab and Queen Jezebel.

Queen Jezebel, you will die and the dogs will drink your blood. King Ahab, you and your sons will all die and be eaten by animals.
In a later battle, the Queen was throne from her castle and dogs ate her body.
The tenth commandment

You shall not covet.